Subject: Bill 69

You are already destroying the beauty of Honolulu (Kakaako in particular) with the useless rail and overcrowding condos, please spare us the ugliness of advertising on busses. I have lived in Honolulu for 69 years and have watched it change and accepted it as progress. But what is going on now is pure greed between developers and politicians. It saddens me beyond belief. The reason the city needs more money all the time is because it is and always has been run so poorly and inefficiently. Which law is it that says, "it's ok if we keep screwing up, we'll just raise taxes or put billboards on busses."
